

April 2020

Dear Kremenets district friends,

Let me echo Ron's recent wishes for all of you to stay safe, healthy, and productive, and add our wishes for a meaningful Passover. If you find yourself with time for research, here are two new resources to browse:

- American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee \(JDC\) Archives material on Kremenets-district and nearby towns, 1917-1990 (Excel)

This spreadsheet lists names of individuals and other information found in 218 mainly English-language items (artifacts, documents, index cards, lists, photos, and remitters) in the archives that are associated with Kremenets-district and nearby towns. Many thanks to Enid Cherenson for her careful, thorough work in compiling these records.

Kremenets-district towns found in the materials are Kozin, Kremenets, Lanovtsy, Oleksinets, Pochayev, Podbereztsy, Radzivilov, Shumsk, Vishnevets, Vyshgorodok, and Yampol. Non-Kremenets-district towns included are Aleksandriya, Annopol, Antonovka, Baranovka, Berestechko, Boremel, Goshcha, Kilikiev, Kutu, Mezherichi (Ostrog district), Mezhirichi (Rovno district), and Ostrog.

- A translation of the 35th anniversary book of the New York Kremenitzer Wolyner Benevolent Association, published in 1950. This booklet gives us a glimpse of how Kremenetsers who emigrated to the United States organized to help each other and those who remained in Kremenets, Thanks to Ted Steinberg for translating this booklet from the original Yiddish.

And here's a reminder that many other resources are available to help you in your research. For a complete list, please
