Froim Ovshivich Yakira, age 62
Ios' Usherovich Vaks, age 75
Yankel Iojnovich Kroit, age 55 and Abram Leib Iosiovich Vaks, age 36

All are literate in Hebrew, natives of Vishnevets borough, listed in revision lists, have not been convicted or investigated.

These individuals gave evidence that they had composed a verdict on 21st December 1837 together with other legal representatives, belonging to the Vishgorodets Draft Board prescribing [the payment of] 550 [rubles] in banknotes for unexpected needs. Expense requirements were confirmed after inquiries were made by order of the higher authorities of Kremenets Town district, [including the] police captain, district lawyer and a member of the town Magistrate. For this purpose they were supplied by the Magistrate [with] a notebook, wherein all expenses for recruits were entered, and all appointed and authorized changes in monetary decisions were reported as expenses. [The total was] 550 [rubles] in banknotes.

[Translation Editor's Note: All except the last 4 lines and signatures of page 4 are a repeat of page 17c.]

The details were not described due to their illiteracy, which is justified.

Testified and signed in the presence of the member of the town Magistrate.

In the year of 1841, April 30th, in the presence of Kremenets Town Magistrate, the former legal representative of the Oleksinets Jewish Society for the recruitment and conscription of 1837 ... on the case on appointment, sentenced to conscript more money for recruiting and unexpected needs – 550 rubles in banknotes ... were witnessed by:

1st, Mordko Iosiov Katz, 50, and 2nd, Srul Meyerovich Klejn ... , 2, ... literate in Hebrew, born in the borough of Oleksinets ... and listed in the revision list, married, having children, never having been judged by the court or having been under investigation, ... (The witnesses) blamed, that although the (verdict*)... made up by them and the other legal representatives of Vishgorodets 1000th Draft Board, on 21 December 1837, allotted 550 rubles in banknotes for unexpected needs by the residents of Oleksinets. The money for this purpose was spent by order of the higher authorities of Kremenets Town...

by the district police captain, district attorney... and town Magistrate. For this reason, there was a notebook given by the Town Magistrate where all expenses for recruiting were written down.

... money was added , according to the verdict, although there was no need for 550 rubles in banknotes, they were instructed accurately for the purpose of the sum, but these (expenses) happened only due to their illiteracy. This is confirmed and signed by:
