June 2021

Dear Kremenets district friends,

We are pleased to announce that we will again hold our annual meeting online through the IAGJS International Conference on Jewish Genealogy on Wednesday, August 4, 2021, from 12:30 to 1:30 PM EDT. Attendees have the option of registering for the entire conference or just for one ($10) or two ($18) sessions. To register, please see https://s4.goeshow.com/iajgs/annual/2021/registration_overview.cfm. In the coming weeks, we'll send out an agenda for the meeting. We hope to "see" you there!

Meanwhile, we have posted three new translations of Kremenets-district records:

Family List of Jewish Townsmen of Kremenets, 1874-1892, CA-

269 (originally in Russian): This list includes 707 Jewish families (comprising more than 5,000 individuals) with heads of households classified as Townsmen. It was compiled in 1874 and has numerous annotations describing relocations, births, deaths, and conscriptions in the following years. The entries include male and female family members and their ages. Many thanks to community member Julia Maksimova for translating this list.

Kremenets Tax List, 1894, CA-268 (originally in Russian): We have added translations of 331 records from 1894 to the existing 1906 and 1911 translations. Many thanks again to community member Julia Maksimova for this translation.

1913 Kremenets Business Directory, KDRG 271 (originally in Russian): This translation is from a "Yellow Pages"-like directory titled Entire Southwest Territory: Reference and Address Book for the Kiev, Podolsk, and Volyn Provinces. It lists 224 business owners presumed to be Jewish, the names of their businesses, and their professions. Many thanks to community member Alan Shuchat for this translation.

Site (for those who have donated money or services during the previous two years). Names and towns from all records are included in the the Excel version of the Indexed Concordance of Personal Names and Town Names and searchable in the Kremenets Concordance Database Index. For a complete list of our resources and their locations, see the "All Resources" page on our website.

The Concordance now includes 446,436 name-town combinations extracted from vital records, censuses, and other sources relating to the Jews of the Kremenets district. Of the 1,644 towns mentioned, the most common are Kremenets, Vishnevets, Radzivilov, Shumsk, Katerburg, Yampol, Lanovtsy, Vyshgorodok, Ostrog, Belozirka, and Pochayev.

In the pipeline for translation and posting are the following documents, among many others:

- Family List of Jewish Merchants of Kremenets, 1874
- Kremenets-District 1913 Business Directory: The directory also include listings for other towns in the Kremenets district. We plan to translate these other listings as time and resources permit.
- Belozirka candle taxpayers, 1895; Kremenets candle taxpayers, 1882
- Kremenets 1922 Census
