My paternal great aunt, Fannie (née WEISS) GOLDBERG, lived in Uniontown, Pennsylvania.

Fannie was born in Ordarma, Hungary in 1882 and she married David GOLDBERG.

They has the following children:

- Louis
- Emanuel
- Helen.

David died in 1952 and Fannie in 1958.

There is a listing of Fannie's obit in the Evening Standard of Uniontown which I found online. I don't have many details about the family but I know that Emanuel, known as Manny, had a daughter named Beverly.

I met Beverly once or twice when I was in college at the University of Pittsburgh and she was in Pittsburgh to study at an art institute of some kind.

There is a copy of Beverly's wedding announcement in the society pages of the Criterion that can be found on the Carnegie Mellon website.

Beverly married a man named Harry Marcus. I believe Beverly is deceased, but know no details.
